

POLICY ON PREVENTION OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT AT WORKPLACE

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1. VISA Steel is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to create a healthy work environment that enable employees to work without fear of prejudice, gender bias, sexual harassment and all forms of intimidation or exploitation. It is committed to provide a work environment that ensures every employee, irrespective of their gender is treated with dignity and respect and afforded equal treatment.
- 1.2. The policy is directed to ensure zero tolerance for sexual harassment and any act of sexual harassment will invite serious disciplinary action. This policy is meant to educate employees about what constitutes sexual harassment, the ways and means adopted to avoid occurrence of any such event, and in the unlikely chance of such an occurrence, to enable a fair mechanism for dealing with such conduct.

2. OBJECTIVE

- 2.1. Promote a workplace based on equality and respect;
- 2.2. Provide a safe and congenial work environment;
- 2.3. Awareness and sensitization about sexual harassment at the workplace;
- 2.4. Prevention and protection against sexual harassment;
- 2.5. To outline the duties, responsibilities and rights of various stakeholders involved in the process;
- 2.6. Define the implications of Sexual Harassment;

3. SCOPE AND EFFECTIVE DATE

- 3.1. Without prejudice to the provisions contained in the Act, the Policy extends to all employees of the Company; all temporary, contract employees as well as trainees, women visiting our office premises or women service providers are also governed by these guidelines.
- 3.2. The policy is deemed to be incorporated in the service condition of all employees and comes into effect immediately.
- 3.3. Where Sexual Harassment occurs to any employee of the Company as a result of an act by a third party or outsider while on official duty, the Company will take all necessary and reasonable steps to assist the affected person in terms of support and preventive action to ensure that such harassment does not occur in future.

4. DEFINITION AND INTERPRETATION

4.1. Act shall mean the Sexual Harassment of Women at workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013

- 5.3.6. The Aggrieved party who is victim of Sexual Harassment may, in addition to the above, seek legal remedies as may be provided under the various laws for the time being in force

5.4. Redressal process

- 5.4.1. The ICC will maintain a register to endorse the complaint received by it and keep the contents confidential, if it is so desired, except to use the same for discreet investigation.
- 5.4.2. Thereafter, the person against whom complaint is made may be called for a deposition before the ICC and an opportunity will be given to him / her to give an explanation, where after, an "Enquiry" shall be conducted and concluded.
- 5.4.3. In the event, the complaint does not fall under the purview of Sexual Harassment or the complaint does not mean an offence of Sexual Harassment, the same would be dropped after recording the reasons thereof and the same to be communicated to the Aggrieved Party. In case the complaint is found to be false, the matter shall be dealt as per Clause 6
- 5.4.4. If the ICC determines that the allegation constitutes an act of sexual harassment; it would proceed to enquire the allegation.
- 5.4.5. The ICC may before initiating an inquiry and at the request of the Aggrieved Party take steps to settle the matter between his/her and the Respondent through conciliation, provided that no monetary settlement shall be made as a basis of conciliation or settlement. Where such a settlement has been arrived at, the ICC shall record the settlement arrived at and forward a copy of the same to the competent authority.

5.5. Enquiry Process

- 5.5.1. The ICC shall immediately proceed with the Enquiry and communicate the same to the Aggrieved Party and the Respondent.
- 5.5.2. The ICC shall prepare and hand over the statement of allegation to the person against whom complaint is made and give him / her an opportunity to submit a written explanation if she / he so desires within 10 days of receipt of the same.
- 5.5.3. The Aggrieved Party shall be provided with a copy of the written explanation submitted by the person against whom complaint is made.
- 5.5.4. If the Aggrieved Party desires to tender any documents by way of evidence before the ICC, she / he shall supply original copies of such documents. Similarly, if the person against whom complaint is made desires to tender any documents in evidence before the ICC he / she shall supply original copies of such documents. Both shall affix his / her signature on the respective documents to certify these to be original copies.
- 5.5.5. If the Aggrieved Party or the person against whom complaint is made desires any witness/es to be called, they shall communicate in writing to the ICC the names of witness/es whom they propose to call; within a period not exceeding 10 working days from the date of receipt of the documents.
- 5.5.6. The ICC has powers to
 - 5.5.6.1. Summon and enforce the attendance of any person and examine him on oath.
 - 5.5.6.2. Require the discovery and production of documents.
- 5.5.7. The ICC shall have the right to terminate the inquiry proceedings or to give an ex-parte decision on the complaint, if the Aggrieved Party or Respondent fails, without sufficient cause, to present herself or himself for 3 consecutive hearings convened by the ICC, as the case may be, provided that such termination or ex-parte order may not be passed without giving a notice in writing, 15 days in advance, to the party concerned.

- 5.5.8. The parties shall not be allowed to bring in any legal practitioner to represent them in their case at any stage of the proceedings before the ICC.
- 5.5.9. The ICC shall provide every reasonable opportunity to the Aggrieved Party and to the person against whom complaint is made, for putting forward and defending their respective case.
- 5.5.10. The ICC shall complete the "Enquiry" within reasonable period but not beyond three months and communicate its findings and its recommendations for action to the competent authority. The report of the ICC shall be treated as an enquiry report on the basis of which an erring employee can be awarded appropriate punishment straightaway.
- 5.5.11. The competent authority will ensure corrective action on the recommendations of the ICC, inform both the parties in writing and report it to ICC.
- 5.5.12. The ICC shall be governed by the requirements of applicable laws, including the Act.
- 5.5.13. The redress format (Annexure 2) should be completed by ICC.

5.6. Recommendations by ICC and action

- 5.6.1. On completion of the inquiry, the ICC is required to provide a report of its findings to the competent authority within 10 days from the completion of the inquiry. The report is also to be made available to the concerned parties.
- 5.6.2. If the allegation has not been proved, the ICC shall recommend that no action is required to be taken in the matter.
- 5.6.3. If the allegation has been proved, the ICC shall recommend to the competent authority to take appropriate action as per service rules:
 - 5.6.3.1. Written apology
 - 5.6.3.2. Warning
 - 5.6.3.3. Reprimand or Censure

5.6.4.6. The competent authority has to act upon the recommendation within 60 days of receipt of the same.

5.6.4.7. In case the ICC find the degree of offence coverable under the Indian Penal Code, then this fact shall be mentioned in its report and appropriate action shall be initiated by the Management, for making a Police Complaint.

5.7. Reporting Mechanism

The ICC is required to meet minimum once in the calendar year; prepare an annual report and submit the same to the competent authority. The Company is required to include in its report the number of cases filed, if any, and their disposal in the annual report of the organisation.

6. FALSE CLAIMS

Dealing with complaints of sexual harassment is a very sensitive matter and any allegations/ complaints, however discreetly handled, could prove damaging for the person against whom it has been raised. Baseless allegations should therefore be strictly avoided.

In a case where a false complaint has been filed and the investigation has proved that the motivation of the Aggrieved Party was purely to defame the respondent, disciplinary action will be initiated against the Aggrieved Party and recorded in the personal file of Aggrieved Party. The action to be taken will be recommended by the Committee. Action can also be taken against a witness who provided false evidence or produced any forged or misleading document.

7. AWARENESS, COMMUNICATION & EMPLOYER DUTIES

The emphasis of Company's policy against sexual harassment shall be preventive rather than prescriptive. In that vein, the Company will ensure that all of its Employees are aware of and fully understand the tenets and conduct requirements laid out in this policy. The company shall:

- 7.1. display at conspicuous locations in the workplace, the penal consequences of sexual harassment; and the order constituting the ICC
- 7.2. regularly organize workshops and awareness programmes to sensitize the Employees to the provisions of the Act and orientation programmes for the members of the ICC
- 7.3. provide necessary facilities to the ICC to deal with the complaint and conduct an enquiry
- 7.4. assist in securing the attendance of respondent and witnesses before the ICC
- 7.5. make available required information to the ICC
- 7.6. monitor the timely submission of reports by the ICC

8. CONFIDENTIALITY/PROHIBITION OF PUBLICATION

- 8.1. The contents of the complaint, identity and addresses of the victim, respondent and witnesses, any information relating to inquiry proceedings, recommendations of the ICC, and the action taken by the Company are not to be published, communicated or made known to the public, press and media. However, information may be disseminated regarding the justice administered to any victim of sexual harassment without disclosing the name, address, identity or any other particulars calculated to lead to identification of the victim and witnesses.

8.2. Access to Reports and Documents

All records of complaints, including contents of meetings, results of investigations and other relevant material will be kept confidential by the Company except where disclosure is required under disciplinary or other remedial processes or under applicable laws.

8.3. Protection to Aggrieved Party / Victim

8.3.1. The Company is committed to ensure that no Employee who brings forward a harassment concern is subject to any form of reprisal. Any reprisal will be subject to disciplinary action

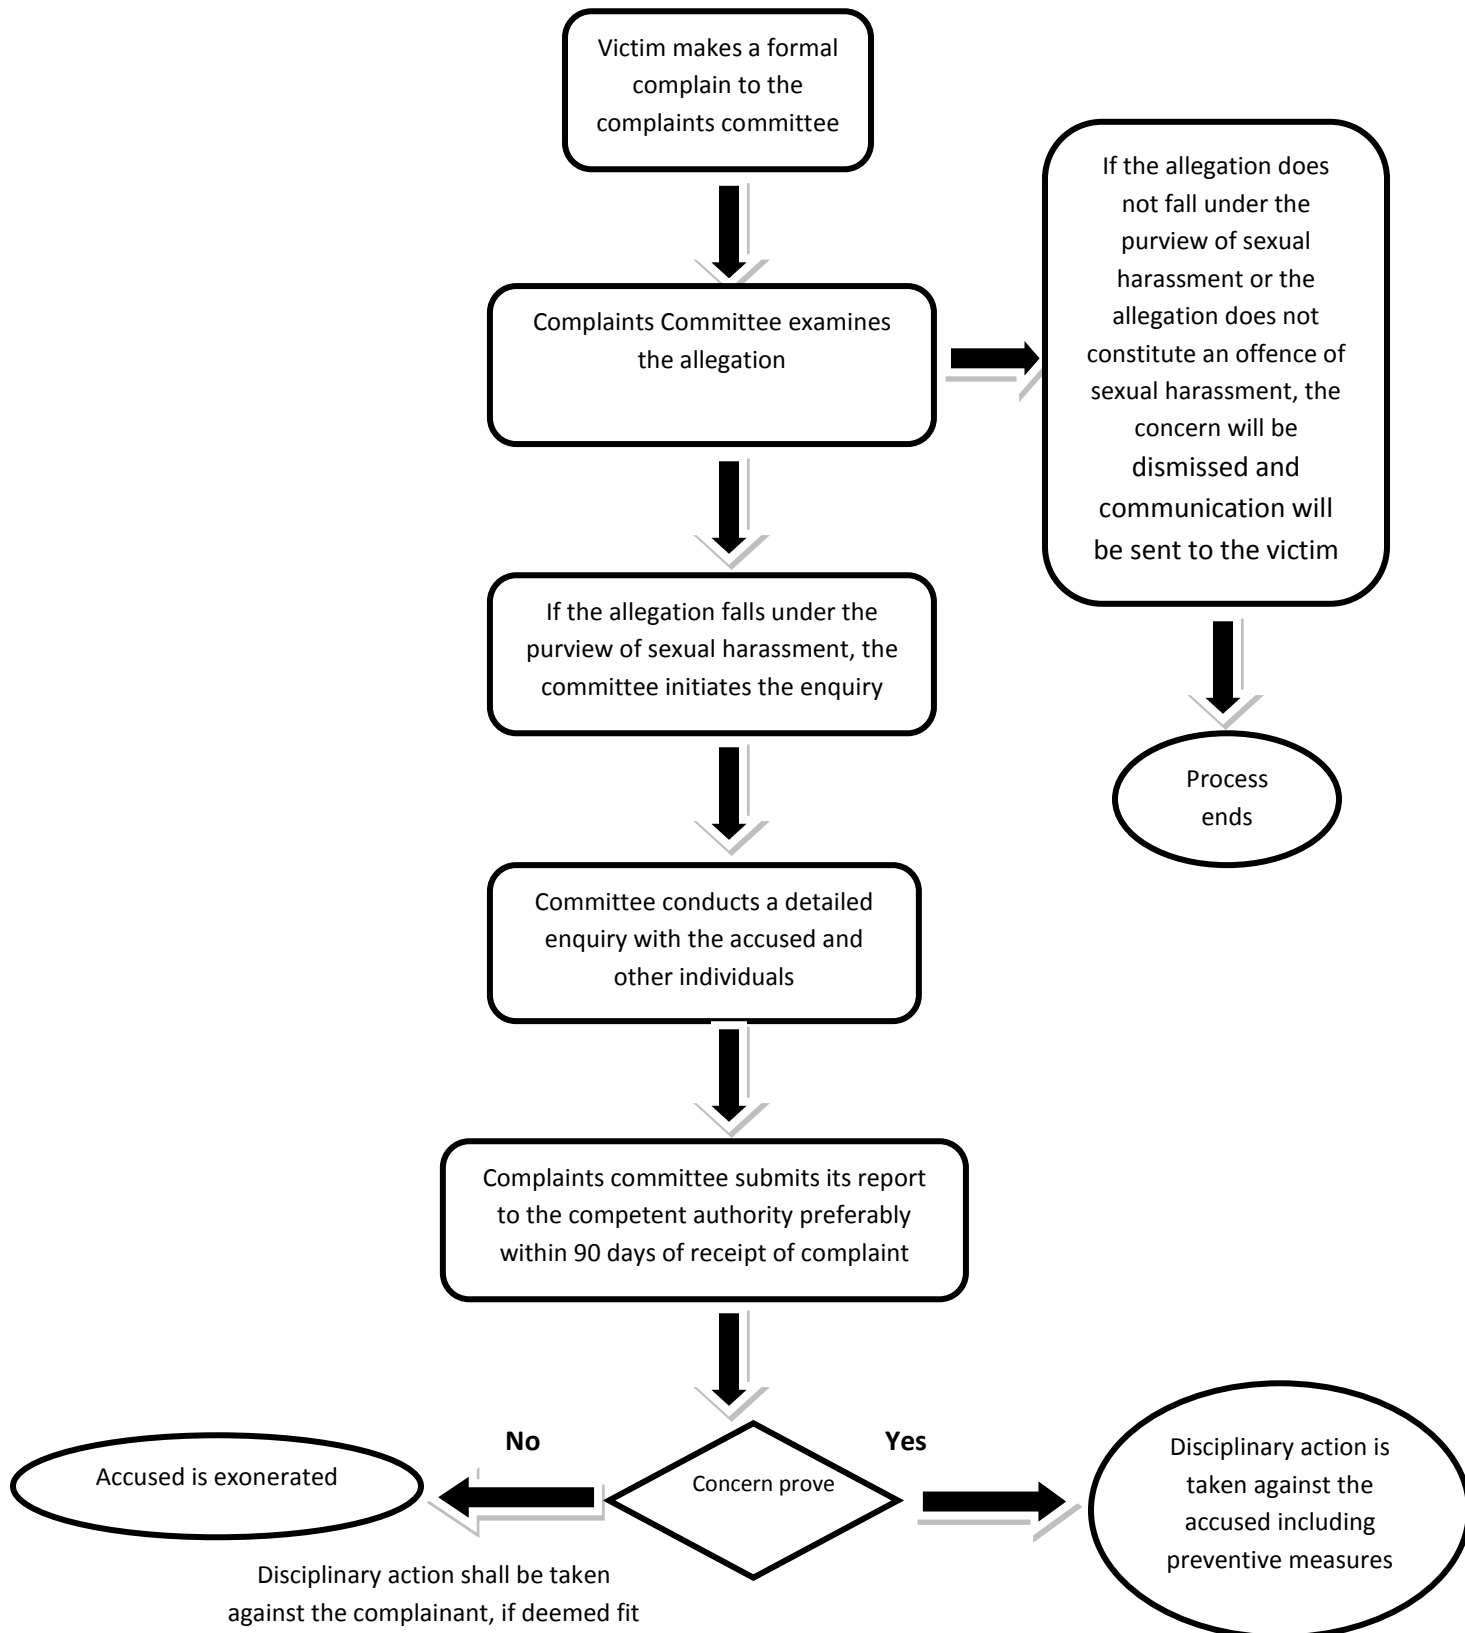

8.3.2. The Company will ensure that victim or witnesses are not victimized or discriminated against while dealing with complaints of Sexual Harassment. Anyone who abuses the procedure will be subject to disciplinary action

8.4. Statutory Compliance

8.4.1. The above policy is aimed at complying with the Sexual Harassment of Women at workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013.

8.4.2. The Company reiterates its commitment to provide its Employees a workplace free from harassment/ discrimination and where every Employee is treated with dignity and respect.
